700,000 MEN HAVE BEEN SENT OVER TO FRANCE

Secretary of War Baker States in Speech to French "Blue Devils"

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 10—More than 700,000 American troops have been sent to France, Secretary Baker said today in a speech to French "Blue Devils" who came to the United States to aid in the third liberty loan campaign. Mr. Baker's last official announcement some weeks ago was that more than half a million had gone over.

More than 700,000 American soldiers have gone overseas to carry back to France the encouragement and assistance which LaFayette and Rochambeau brought to America, Secretary Baker told the French Alpine Chasseurs in bidding them farewell here today at the base of the Washington monument.

The war secretary's last announcement some weeks ago concerning the size of the American forces abroad was that 500,000 men had sailed for the battle front.

The Alpine Chasseurs, better known as the "Blue Devils" of France, came to America last month to assist in the Third Liberty Loan campaign and since have toured the south and middlewest. They were reviewed and received by the secretary of war today before leaving for Baltimore, Newark, New York and Boston, enroute back to their native land. Attending the exercises were M. Jusserand, the French ambassador representatives of the French high commission, Mr. Baker's staff and many government officials.

"You soldiers of France", said Mr. Baker, in addressing the Chasseurs "come to this country in order that the people of America might see with their own eyes in your persons, the kind of men who have written a new page in the record of human heroism and success. You were welcomed in this country from one end of it to the other. The hearts of our people went out to you and to your people. As the embodiment of the determination, the courage and the heroism of France you have been accepted and received. Nearly all of you I am told are battle-scarred veterans. You are members of an army which has never known defeat and you are representatives of a people who would rather die than not be free.

"You are going back to your own country—still, thank God, your own—and when you get there you will find that the small beginning of our army which you left there has grown into a mighty manifestation. When you left France, the American army was there in small representation, but now more than 700,000 Americans have sailed from their shore to carry back to your army and your people the encouragement and the assistance which LaFayette and Rochambeau brought to America in the early and struggling days of American freedom. They are there learning from you emulating the virtues which you exemplify, learning the art of war as you have learned it, in the hard school of strenuous experience. * * * * * They and you are about to accomplish the great wonder in the world of winning a victory which will forever set the stamp of mankind's approval upon the true theory of civilization."

"Instead of believing in mere physical force, hereafter, we are going to believe in the strength of moral force; instead of divorcing the things of a material character from their moral intent and purpose, we are collecting now for the children of men everywhere a civilization which will rest on moral foundations. I trust you will have a safe and pleasant journey home. I know where your hearts are. They are in the trenches where danger lies, and no doubt many of you will return to those exhilarating and ennobling experiences which soldiers have. I trust that when this great war ends each of you will be alive and well to share the glory of your success and to bid a kindly and friendly farewell to the American soldiers who leave your country to return home in order that as you speed the parting guests, you may emphasize the emotion which I have tried to express that always in the future as in the past the French people and the French army, the American people and the American army are co-partners in liberty and equality and valorous defenders of the principle of freedom."

STATEMENTS

Official Communications Issued Bys Belligerent Countries Regarding War Situation.

BRITISH

LONDON, June 10.—"Beyond artillery activity on both sides in the different sectors," says Field Marshal Haig's report from British headquarters in France tonight," there is nothing to report from the British front."

LONDON, June 10.—"On Sunday our flying squadrons, co-operating with the French on the Noyon-Montdidier battle front, worked continually from dawn until dark," says the official statement on aerial operations today. "Our bombing airplanes impeded the enemy's advance and harassed his troops and transport with constant machine gun fire.

"Strong patrols of scout machines swept the battle area thruout the day while high flying airplanes protected those below from air attacks. Among the targets hit were an airdrome near Roye, where hostile machines on the ground were set afire; an ammunition dump at Montdidier, which went up in a sheet of flame, canteens and wagons at Couchy, Lorries at Lauguy and Hainvillers and infantry in trenches and on the roads along and behind the whole fighting line.

"On the British front there was little enemy activity in the air, but our machines carried out a good deal of observation work until stopped by rain. One of our artillery machines forced a two-seated German machine to land and surrender at the airdrome to which our machine belonged."

FRENCH

LONDON, June 10.—"Thruout the night and morning the battle raged along the new front of attack with unabated fury," says the Reuter correspondent at French headquarters whose dispatch was filed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. On the wings the enemy was still held on practically the same line in spite of his persistent and reckless attempts to advance.

"On the extreme left the village of Courcelles changed hands six times. On the extreme right, Plemont, altho almost in the first line was still holding out, the little French garrison having beaten off a wave of Greman infantry. Mont Renaud is still ours. In the center of the battlefield, by pouring in fresh battalions, the enemy succeeded in pushing deep into our line and are pressing southward between Cuvilly and Thiescourt. The fighting was of the bloodiest character hand to hand over the ruins of every village, hamlet and farm. The enemy's losses are extraordinaryly heavy there having been this time no surprise in the attack."

ITALIAN

ROME, June 10.—Five hostile airplanes were brought down and four tons of bombs were dropped on the enemy's depots and communication junctions, according to the official statement issued by the war office today. The text of the communication reads:

"Artillery duels were frequent from Tonale to the Brenta river and on the lower Piave. In Val Lagarina, Val Arsa and at Sbonche, Laghi and Porte di Salton, enemy surprise attacks by large detachments were frustrated.

"In a raid on Col dell Orso our own and British patrols drove back reconnaissance parties at various points and captured arms and material. Four tons of bombs were dropped on enemy depots and communicating junctions. Five hostile airplanes were brought down."

GERMAN

BERLIN, June 10—via London.—The German war office, in its official communication today claims the capture of 8,000 prisoners and some guns in the new offensive in France.

The statement says:

"Artillery firing revived between Arras and Albert, south of the Somme and on the Avre. Lively reconnoitering activity continues.

"In a powerful attack yesterday we penetrated into the hilly district southwest of Noyon. West of the Matz river we have taken a French position near Mortemer and Orvillers and pushed forward beyond Ricquebourg.

"East of the Matz river the height of Gury was captured. In spite of the stubborn resistance of the enemy, our infantry fought its way beyond Bourmont and Maureul.

"South and southeast of Lassigny we penetrated far into Thiescourt wood. Violent counter-attacks by the Frenc hwere repulsed.

"We have captured about 8,000 prisoners and some guns.

"On the front between the Oise and Rheims the situation is unchanged. Local engagements north of the Aisne, northwest of Chateau Thierry and in the neighborhood of Bligny brought in prisoners. Thirty-seven enemy airplanes and six captive balloons were shot down yesterday.

JUDGMENT SUSTAINED BY SUPREME COURT

Federal Court Degree Prohibiting Newspaper Publishing Articles Held to Embarrass Administration of Justice, Is Sustained.

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, June 10.—Federal court degrees prohibiting newspapers from publishing articles held to embarass the administration of justice, was sustained today by the supreme court in upholding judgment against the Toledo Newspaper company, N. D. Cochran, editor of the Toledo,Ohio, News-Bee for contempt of court, Justices Holmes and Brandeis dissented. Justices Day and Clarke both from Ohio, took no part in the decision.

Chief Justice White rendered the opinion. Taking up the contention of the defendants that the act authorizing courts to punish for contempt was inapplicable because the publications complained of related to to a matter of public concern and safeguarded by the secured freedom of the press he said:

"We might well pass the proposition by because to state it is to answer it, since it involves in it very staement the contention that the freedom of the press is the freedom to do wrong with impunity and implies the right to frustrate and defeat the discharge of those governmental duties upon the performance of which the freedom of all including that of the press depends. The safeguarding and fructification of free and constitutional institutions is the very basis and mainstay upon which the freedom of the press rests and that freedom therefore does not and cannot be held to include the right virtually to destroy such institutions. It suffices to say that however, complete is the right of the press to state public things and discuss them that right as every other right enjoyed in human society is subject to the restraints which separate right from wrong doing * * * * * *

* * * * Again it is said that there is no good proof that the mind of the judge was influenced or his purpose to do his duty obstructed or restrained by the publications and therefore there was no proof tending to show the wrong complained of. But here again not the influence upon the mind of the particular judge is the criterion but the reasonable tendency of the acts done to influence or bring about the baleful result is the test."

Declaring it contrary to practices in this country and our ways of thinking, "for the same person to be the accuser and sole judge in a matter which if he be sensitive may involve strong personal feeling," Justice Holmes in a dissenting opinion declared he was unable to "find anything that obstructed the administration or justice in any sense." in this case. He added he believed it impossible "to believe that such a judge in this case could have found in anything that was printed even a tendency to prevent his performing his sworn duty."

ALLIES STOP NEW DRIVE OF THE GERMANS

Offensive Has Not Brought the Enemy What He Expected

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, June 10.—By the Associated Press.—At the conclusion of the first 24 hours of the new battle between Montdidier and the Oise, the impression gained is that the powerful German smash has not brought the enemy the result he expected. The line is bent in the center quite insignificantly and the resistance the French are opposing on the actual position of combat appears to be efficacious. Extreme violence was the dominant note of the battle on the first day and desperate assaults with huge masses of troops seem likely to continue at least for some days. With the concentration of troops such as the Germans had been enabled to bring into line at the point chosen for the attack it was physically impossible for the defenders to resist in their advanced positions.

When the masses of German infantry came over, the entente allied troops spread lightly in the forward works fell back coolly, fighting yard by yard, to the actual line of the resistance. They held back the enemy just sufficienty to make him show his strength and to permit the main body of defenders to make the proper disposition to meet him.

Only at one point was the real French line forced to recede and that was in the neighborhood of Ressons-Sur-Matz.

After the German infantry had started four hours of the most intense fighting had brought them only partly across the allied advanced zone. They were battered thoroly by the allied artillery whose target was so plain that the enemy's losses must have been frightful with very little to compensate him for his sacrifices.

The village of Courcelles changed hands numerous times and, when this despatch was sent was in the possession of the allies. At the other end of the line, Mont Renaud was still making a magnificent defense and last reports showed that Le Plement was yet in allied hands.

The center about Ressons-sur-Matz, where the Germans made their most obstinate effort and formed a pocket tending southeastward, is the only part of the line against which the Germans have been able to report a real gain. Their intention is to try to reach the banks of the Oise and threaten the allied salient which extends to the vicinity of Noyon.

The Germans knew when they opened the attack that their task would be difficult. Therefore, they sent into the fray only chosen divisions, which had been specially trained for the assault. It is estimated that they engaged approximately twenty divisions on the front line for the first shock while behind these ready to take the place of the exhausted divisions, there probably were a similar number, perhaps even greater.

SURVIVORS LANDED FROM PENAR DEL RIO

NORFOLK, June 10.—Survivors of the American Steamer Pinar del Rio, arriving here today from Monteo, N. C., asserted that the enemy submarine which sank their vessel off the Virginia Capes Saturday was accompanied by a mother ship, a vessel of about 6,000 tons, painted gray with one funnel amidships.

The transport bound north from a South American port, sighted the submarine soon after 10 o'clock. Immediately full speed ahead was ordered and the vessel zig zagged. A few minutes later a vessel in the distance, which later was identified as a United States army transport, opened fire on the submarine. Two shots were heard, followed almost immediately by three others. The submarine was too far away, said the South American captain for him to tell whether any of the shots took effect. He also said that he thought the torpedo was too far away from the vessel to try a hit with a torpedo. The Brazilian continued on its course with all possible speed for this port without waiting to ascertain the result of the encounter.

Numerous machine guns, it is believed will be rounded up in the woods. The 90th and 23rd regiments of infantry, comprising what is know as the Syracuse brigade hold the ground on the right of the marines at the point on the front nearest Paris. This is the second time the Syracuse brigade has held the point on the line nearest the capital the former occasion being at the offensive when the allies were still falling back and the 90th and 23rd went in at Coulomb for a short time. The 23rd captured machine guns June 6th, while supporting the attack by the marines.

With The American Army In France, June 9.—Sunday—By The Acsociated Press—Lieutenant Edgar Lawrence of Chicago, flying in an airplane, crashed from an altitude of a thousand meters last Wednesday, forty miles behind the front. He was instantly killed. The cause of the accident is not known.

SENATE DEBATES UNDERWOOD BILL

Secret Diplomacy Versus Open Diplomacy Discussed at Length by Senators.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 10.—Secret diplomacy versus open diplomacy was argued at length in the senate today during consideration of the rule proposed by Senator Underwood, of Alabama, to limit senate debate during the war with an amendment by Senator Borah of Idaho for public consideration of treaties.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the foreign relations committee; Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, ranking Republican of that committee and Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, former Secretary of State, joined in opposing the Borah amendment, which was upheld by the author and Senator Kellogg of Minnesota.

Concessions were made today in the negotiations toward disposition of the resolution and amendment. Senator Borah modified his amendment to provide that two thirds of the senate instead of four fifths, as he originally proposed might close its doors when treaties are being debated. An amendment by Senator Sterling of South Dakota to give a majority that power was rejected 37 to 27, but the vote was not regarded as indicative of senate sentiment on the merits of the question.

Senator Underwood made a concession to the opponents of his cloture proposal announcing acceptance of an amendment by Senator Cummins of Iowa, which would limit speeches to an hour and a half instead of only one hour as the first rule provided.

The rule was vigorously opposed by Senators Harding of Ohio, Smith of Michigan, Lodge of Massachusettts, Sherman of Illinois, and other Republicans, who declared no important war measures have been delayed by talk in congress Senator Sherman asserted that free speech is dead as far as the administration is concerned.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

The Germans in the center of their new attack on the front between Montdidier and Noyon have gained additional ground against the French, but on both the right and left wings they are being held.

In violent successive attacks Monday they captured the villages of Mery, Belloy and St. Maure and also pressed forward and gained a footing in the village of Marqueglise, the last named place representing the deepest point of penetration since the offensive began—between five and six miles.

The French still are exacting a heavy toll in lives from the Germans as they deliver their attack in waves are are giving ground only when forced to do so under superiority of numbers. Nowhere as has the enemy been able to pierce the front which has been bent back in perfect order whenever the necessity arose. The battle is described by correspondents as one of the most furious since the war began, with the enemy unusually reckless in wasting life to gain his objectives. The latest official communication from the German war office says additional ground has been gained by the Germans southwest of Noyon against newly brought up French reinforcements and that the Germans have taken about 8,000 prisoners and some guns. Near Bussiares, northwest of Chateau Thiery the Americans and French again have delivered strong attacks against the Germans and taken more ground. They also captured a number of prisoners and thirty machine guns. On the remainder of the front in France and Belgium the operations have been of a minor nature, altho south of the Somme the British near Bouzencourt have carried out an operation which straightened out a threatening salient that sagged in their line. As the Austrians continue to bring up large forces of men behind their lines in the Italian theater the artilery activity and raiding operations are daily increasing.

Thruout the mountain region from Tonale to the Brenta river and along the lower reaches of the Piave river the guns of both sides are engaged in violent duels. Numerous surprise attacks have been attempted by the Austrians on various sectors but all of them were successfully repulsed. Aerial operations on a large scale also are in progress and fights in the air are of daily occurrence. Large quantities of explosives have been dropped on enemy positions by Italians and a number of enemy aircraft have been shot down.

In the Macedonian theater there also has been an increase in the artillery activity the enemy bombarding the allied lines on both sides of the Vardar river. On the part of the front held by the Serbians the artillery fire has been unusually severe.

Official announcement has been made to the house of commons at London that 738 officers and men, nurses, women of the auxiliary corps and civilians were killed between May 15 and June 1 by German air aiders bombing hospitals and that 643 persons were wounded in these attacks.

HURLEY PREDICTS 25,000,000 TON MARINE FLEE

In Address to Notre Dame Class Makes Statement of Shipbuilding Program

(By Associated Press)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 10.—America in 1920 will have a merchant marine of 25,000,000 dead weight tons, Chairman Hurley of the shipping board declared here tonight in an address giving the most complete statement of the nation's shipbuilding program which has yet been made public. He was speaking to the graduates of Notre Dame University.

This great commerce fleet, Mr. Hurley said, the largest ever assembled in the history of the world, and involving the expenditure of more than five billions of dollars, will link the United States to South and Central America by weekly steamer service which will enable the Latin-American countries to utilize their unlimited natural resources in the freest competition with other nations. It also will bridge the Pacific for the transportation of the products of Japan, Russia, China, Australia and the Orient, and will continue to promote America's trade with Europe. "Our program calls for building of 1,856 passenger, cargo, refrigerator ships and tankers," said Mr. Hurley. "Of 5,000 up to 12,000 tons each with an aggregate deadweight tonnageof 13,000,000. Exclusive of these we have 450 commandeered vessels, taken over from foreign and domestic owners, which are being completed by the emergency fleet corporation. These will aggregate a total deadweight tonnage of 1,715,000.

"This makes a total of 2,101 vessels, exclusive of tugs and barges, which are being built and will be put on the seas by the emergency fleet corporation in the course of carrying out the present program, with an aggregate deadweight tonnage of 14,715,000.

"Five billion dollars will be required to finish our program for 1918, 1919 and 1920, but the expenditure of this enormous sum will give to the American people the greatest merchant fleet ever assembled in the history of the world, aggregating 25,000,000 tons.

"American workmen have made the expansion of recent months possible and they will make possible the successful conclusion of the whole program. From all present expectations it is likely that by 1920 we shall have close to a million men working on American merchant ships and their equipment.

"We have a total of 819 ship ways in the United States. Of these a total of 751 all of which, except ninety, are completed are being utilized by the emergency fleet corporation for the building of American merchant ships.

"In 1919 the average tonnage of steel, wood and concrete ships continuously building on each way should be about six thousand tons. If we are using 751 ways on cargo ships and can average three ships per year per way we should turn out in one year 13,518,000 tons.

"The total gross revenue of our fleet is very impressive. From the ships under the control of the shipping board a total gross revenue is derived of about $360,000,000."

COAL SUPPLIES TO BE CUT 25 PER CENT

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Curtailment of coal supplies to manufacturers of passenger automobiles for the year beginning August 1, to 25 per cent of the quantity consumed in 1917-18, was announced tonight by the fuel administration. This is one of the steps in a drastic program for reduction of fuel allowed non-war industries to meet the expected coal shortage next winter.

There is understood to be before President Wilson now a report upon which it is proposed to base concerted action by the fuel administration the food administration, the war industries board and the railroad administration in the matter of curtailment orders. The heads of these agencies have been in conference on the subject and early action to co-ordinate their efforts is looked for.

Director of Conservation Noyes has reported to Administrator Garfield that 100,000,000 tons of coal more than produced this year will be needed to meet the demands of the coming year.

And still another lesson from the Colonial Inn fire. A $7,000 insurance policy on that fine building was dropped a few days since because of the large increase in the rate. The people of Jacksonville should remember that the rate was increased because of the inadequate water supply. They should also remember that they will have an opportunity to acquire an adequate supply and thus to earn a lower insurance rate. A vote for the water supply bonds next Tuesday will be a vote for an adequate supply and for lower insurance rates.

THE WATER SUPPLY COMMITTEE.

The proposal to issue for development of the water supply is really the report of the joint committee of city officials and citizens, after an extended period of investigation. This committee includes in its members Republicans and Democrats, Catholics and Protestants, business and professional men, of high standing in this community.

You may not think that some of the officials have made a success of the city government. You may not admire everything in the record of some of the non-officials. Bear in mind that men who live in any communitiy for a number of years and who do anything are certain to have some criticism. Some people will not agree with them. But look over the list of names and putting aside any mere matter of prejudice or personal feeling that you may have, how could you choose a more representative committee of ten men than is included in this joint committee of city officials and citizens?

Yes, there may be something about them as individuals that you do not approve, but who can with propriety question the integrity of these men? No doubt all of them have made mistakes, but considering them in fairness you must admit that this joint committee is representative and is made up of honest men who desire the best for Jacksonville.

You know the city council, Mayor Rodgers, Commissioners Cox, Martin, Vasconcellos and Widmayer.

You know the citizens' committee, Dr. J. R. Harker, Dr. C. E. Black, T. A. Chapin, M. R. Fitch and John W. Merrigan.

WOULD AID DEAF AND DUMB

The welfare of the deaf and dumb is the object of a bill introduced by Representative Frederick W. Dallinger of Massachusetts. The measure directs the Commissioner of Education to employ a competent person with experience in the education of the deaf and dumb, and who is also proficient in the use of the sign language and manual alphabet. The duties of the new official are to be the gathering of staatistics of the educational, industrial and social conditions of such persons, both in this and foreign countries. The result of his observations are to be published in the form of bulletins which are to be furnished schools, educators, parents and all persons interested in the education of the deaf and dumb. Mr. Dallinger believes that much good will come from the legislation and that it will serve to relieve in some measure the unfortunate condition of the people it is designed to benefit.

THE GREAT LEVELER.

Dr. Higley of Cleveland, in an address on Illinois college campus Sunday evening, referred to the army service as a great leveler. The wearing of the khaki levels some men down and others up, with a corresponding benefit to all. The same spirit that fuses these men into one great fighting force also premeates the noncombatants. It is that spirit that is uniting the young and old, the people of all religions and all politics, in the common cause. Very soon the people of the United States will be formed into two great armies—the one fighting at the front, the other working behind the lines. It will be a fine demonstration in a country wide way of that order "fight or work."

WILL HELP SAVE CROP.

Not long since the local agent of the Wabash gave notice that the men in the office here will be available for farm work any evening after 5 o'clock. The plan is indeed worth while and it is one which very likely to be generally favored and adopted in this community, if 250 farm workers are sent to the training camp June 24. Mayor Rodgers has suggested than an organization of workers be perfected and made available for parts of days each week from now until the harvest time. George B. Kendall, county agent, has also talked of such an organization and it is more likely that something definite will soon be done along this line. The office of the county agent is the natural clearing house for such a program.

Some plan can doubtless be worked out whereby the farmer who has a special need for workers can secure a certain number at a ctrain time by cammunicating with the county agent's office. This service can be made available in this emergency for members of the Farmers club and non-members alike. The workers who volunteer for this service will be entitled to reasonable pay and farmers will be willing to make such payment. With some such plans as this the crops of Morgan county can readily be cared for.

HIGHER FARES AND NO KICKS.

The new federal order which provides a 3 cent fare on all railroads went into effect Monday. Railroad agents stated that no complaints were heard. People were prepared for the change in charges and seemed to be willing to pay. When it is remembered the strenuous fight made by the people thru years to get a 2 cent fare and retain it, it is surprising how readily they accept the new condition, until it is remembered that the rate increase is a war measure.

Therein is the explanation. The people know that conditions now are not normal, that the rate increase was ordered because Mr. McAdoo saw the need for the increased revenues as a war factor. The people are now united in their support of the government in a way that was never before true, and are willing to pay any tax or any charge that the government decides upon as a war time necessity.

The heavy fire loss in Jacksonville yesterday gave pointed evidence of the unfortunate condition in which the Jacksonville fire department is now found. Because the city warants cannot be cashed at their face value or discounted without great difficulty, experienced men have left the department. Less than the usual number of men are now employed and some of them are new at the work. The fire also called forcible attention to the dangerous condition of the unpaved space between the rails of the Jacksonville Railway Co. One of the motor trucks stuck between the rails and on this account its use was delayed at least 15 minutes.

Something should certainly be done to speedily compromise the difference between the property owners and the railway company and pave the right of way with the brick available, or a temporary pavement should be put in at all crossings. If neither of these things can be done, the only really safe plan is to close the street to traffic on that portion where the space between the rails is unpaved.

RIPPLING RHYMS

KEEPING IN TRIM.

If we expect to do our bit, we must be sure we're feeling fit. The years ahead look pretty fierce so far as our weak eyes can pierce. We'll have to strain our every nerve, if we aspire to help and serve, if we would aid our boys to shoot the horrid Hun, the tiresome Teut. So it's unwise to say, "Oh, chee, there's no vacation billed for me! I'll have to work and break my neck, and spoil suspenders by the peck, that I may earn some good long green, and queer a German submarine." Far better to forget the war, and all the boons we're struggling for, a week or two, when summer's here and breathe the mountain atmosphere, exploring woods and crystal caves, or loafing by the sad sea waves. We will not win the war, I wot, if we're all jaded, tired and hot; we have to keep ourselves in shape, if we would hand the kaiser crape. I'm going fishing pretty soon, along when things warm up in June and doubtless folks will say, "Gee whiz! A hard and calloused soul is his! While we stay here to earn the mon with which we hope to spoil the Hun, while we stay here to sweat and cook, he goes a-fishing in the brook!" But I'll come back all full of pep, with spring and vigor in my step, and cut more grass in half a day than they'll put up while I'm away.

EXTERMINATE THE BARBERRY

The patriotic spirit of the citizens of Illinois in town and country, shown by their earnest and hearty co-operation with the Illinois Department of Agriculture in its campaign of extermination of the common barberry, so menacing to the wheat crop of Illinois, is a highly encouraging sign of the times.

In many cases village boards and city administrators have taken the initiative n eradcating this pestiferous shrub.

Local agricultural and metropolitan newspapers have ably assisted.

Such unity of action will add thousands and possibly millions of bushels of wheat to the world's food supply.

The campaign against the barberry has unfolded one of the many evidences of the solid support of our people in the world's conflict.

Another menace to the growing crop in Illinois is making its appearance just now, the chinch bug. It is appearing in menacing numbers in six counties in Southern Illinois. In several other counties there are evidences of this approaching danger.

Secton No. 21 of the Plant Inspection Act provides as follows:

"If the Department of Agriculture shall find, at any time, in any county, township, or other geographical district, fields, crops of any property or place so infested by insect pests, or injury to farm crops or other property, which injury might, in the judgment of the Department of Agriculture be restrained by reasonable measures of arrest and prevention, it shall require of all persons owning, leasing managing, or occupying property infested by such diseases, within said district, that they shall take such measures of arrest and prevention as are prescribed by the Department of Agriculture for the protection of the property of others against injury; and it shall be the duty of every person so notified and instructed to perform the acts required of him by the instructions of the Department of Agriculture."

The Department of Agriculture has not the necessary money to provide inspectors to inspect the State of Illinois to ascertain just where precautions should be taken to keep these pests from spreading over the neighborhood.

All the farmers should keep a sharp watch on the wheat fields for the chinch bug and where any are found, to report to the County Agent of the county. If there is no County Agent they should report to Dr. Stephen E. Forbes, State Entomologist, Urbana, Illinois, who will advise as to the necessary steps to take to keep them from spreading over the country and destroying the young corn.

You will be performing one very patriotic service by acting on the above suggestion.

Fight the chinch bug and help win the war

WATER COMMITTEE VISITED FACTORIES

Dr. J. R. Harker, J. W. Merrigan and M. R. Fitch of the citizens water supply committee, yesterday visited the McCarthy-Gebert cigar factory and the plant of the Illinois Steel Bridge Co. There they made brief statements to the men with reference to the proposed bond issue and answered various questions. They had previously visited the plant of Jacob Cohen & Son for a like purpose. In all these plants the members of the committee were most cordially received and found the men thoroly interested in the proposal.

AGREEMENT ON WATER BONDS

If water supply bonds are authorized at the election next Tuesday they will not be issued until after satisfactory arrangements have been made for the use of the land. This is the recorded promise of the joint committee of city council and citizens:

"Jacksonville, Ill.
"June 10, 1918.

"The undersigned city commissioners of the city of Jacksonville, and members of the citizens' committee on the water proposition do hereby agree jointly and severally and individually, that in the event the issue of $75,000 water bonds is authorized at the election to be held June 18, 1918, no bond or bonds will be sold nor any contract in connection with the proposed extension of the water works be entered into until a sufficient amount of the land required for the reservoir is arranged for, and until the way is clear for beginning the work of construction.

SPECIALIZED CLERKS URGENTLY NEEDED.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Expert clerical work has a more important place in the Government's war organization than most people realize. We all know that the war can not be won in the trenches alone; that an effective establishment at home is vital to the success of the biggest job ever undertaken by any nation; but the full extent to which the specialized clerk is needed is perhaps not generally understood. And it is in this class of work that women have the best opportunity to be of real service to the Government at this time.

In the national capital alone the civilian force increased from 30,000 to nearly 80,000 during the first year of our participation in the war. Nine-tenths of the new employees are clerks of one kind or another, and fully three-fourths of them are women. 18,000 stenographers and typists are at work constantly in the Government offices at Washington on the tons of correspondence and records made necessary by war preparations on a scale such as the world has never before known.

General clerks, that is, those without a specialty, are not difficult to obtain even under present conditions but the United States Civil Service Commission charged with the duty of recruiting the civil service to meet war needs, is experiencing difficulty in obtaining a sufficient number of applications for many clerical positions which require special training or experience. There is an urgent call for applicants for the positions of stenographer, typewriter, bookkeeper- typewriter, clerk-bookkeeper, cost accountant, accounting and statistical clerk, statistician, clerk qualified in accounting, clerk qualified in business administration, index and catalogue clerk, schedule clerk, passenger rate clerk, blue-print file clerk and assistants to business manager. All of these positions are open to both men and women. Representatives of the Civil Service Commission at the post offices in all cities are prepared to furnish definite information and application blanks.

LITERARY UNION FAVORS BOND ISSUE.

At a meeting of the Literary Union held last night at the home of A. T. Capps on North Church street, the water supply bond issue was discussed by Dr. Carl E. Black. After presentation of the subject there came informal discussion in accordance with the custom of the Union. It developed that the men present were all heartily in favor of the present proposal, altho in the company were men who had previously thought that the only solution of the Jacksonville water situation was the Illinois river supply and others who until the present time have favored only the development of the north well proposition.

In this organization, as is true with the general public, there was apparent a spirit of forgetting all past differences of opinion and now uniting on this one proposal, which presents the best possibility of securing water supply that has been presented to Jacksonville in many years.

George L. Samuels of Alton returned to his home Monday evening. He came to Jacksonville to bring Mrs. Lucille Galloway to the New Home sanitarium for an operation.

The exemption board yesterday took the necessary action in transfering a number of married men from class 4 to class 1. These men had originally been placed in class 1-J, by this board and subsequently transferred to 4. They are all men who have been married since the war began. Other local boards, it is understood, placed the men in class 1 at the beginning and did not give them even the temporarily deferred classification that was accorded by the Morgan county board. The men listed below have been so transferred and will be summoned for physical examination next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The list includes:

Ralph C. Cowgur, 813 South East street.
Harry Goacher, Waverly.
Leo C. Bourn, Jacksonville.

The board has been advised that Mahathan Stewart, who was enrolled for the officers' training camp at Ft. Dodge has been refused on account of defective vision. The board has been notified that R. Y. Rowe has been accepted in the navy service at Newport and classified in Q. M. C.

Cleon Bell, who failed to pass examination for the navy at Newport News, appeared for medical examination before the local board Monday. Mr. Bell's case was referred to the medical advisory board. It was stated in the office of the local board yesterday that Mr. Bell had the oportunity of being placed in Class4. However, he has asked the board to give him Class 1, so that he may have another chance at entering the army service in some department. It is true quite frequently that members of the local board come in contact with men who are seeking deferred classification and it is also true that there have been quite a number of young men who have especially requested the board to place them in Class 1, instead of deferred classification. It is thus apparent that there are a number of Morgan county young men who are really anxious to do their bit.

Another man in this class was Aldo W. Hierman of Arenzville, who was placed in Class 3-J by the district board or the fourth division, No. 2, southern division, Springfield. He recently appeared before the local board and asked that he be sent with Morgan county's quota of 400 to Camp Taylor this month. He has waived all exemption claims, has passed the physical examination and so will leave for camp this month.

Still another man who is waiving deferred classification is Orville R. McCann. He was in Class 2-B and his request that he be sent with the 400 men to Camp Taylor under the June call will be granted.

PUBLICATION NOT REQUIRED.

An item was printed in the Journal a few days since stating that a communication had been received from a resident of road district No. 8 asking why the clerk and treasurer had failed to publish his report required by law. L. V. Baldwin, county highway superintendent, yesterday called attention to article 52, section 2, of Illinois road and bridge law which indicates that the clerk and treasurer must compile his report and file it with the road commissioner, where it is a matter of record and subject to inspection of the public, but there is no legal requirement that it be published. This matter is optional with the clerk, as he has the right to publish or not, just as he deems best.

NO ISSUANCE OF BONDS UNTIL LAND IS SECURED

Resolution Placed on Record by City Council Has Approval of Citizens' Committee— Weekly Meeting of Council.

A short session of the city council was held Monday morning at the usual hour. The most important business transacted was with reference to the proposed water supply bond election. A resolution was passed and signed by all members of the city council and members of the citizens committee, pledging that if bonds are authorized at the election next Tuesday, that none will be issued until a sufficient amount of land for the reservoir has been purchased, leased or satisfactorily arranged for in some other way. This action was taken because of the expressed fear in some quarters that bonds might be authorized and issued and then the city find it impossible to proceed because of the unwillingness of property owners adjacent to the proposed reservoir to either sell or lease.

By the action taken Monday and made a matter of record, no such situation as this can arise and any person who has fears that the bonds may be authorized and sold and then the money simply be on deposit because the project has been tied up by litigation, need have no further fears on this subject. There was also some informal discussion of various matters relating to the bond election and it is understood that the committee will have headquarters at the Hayden building on South Sandy street in connection with the Red Cross organization. It is desired to have some central place where information concerning the election may be disseminated and where any questions can be answered.

Officers Reports.

Reports from departments were largely a matter of routine. Mr. Cox mentioned that he had purchased a team for use in the street department. Report of George P. Davis, chief of police, was presented and showed 28 arrests made and collections of $286. The arrests were as follows: disorderly conduct 12; assault and battery 1; violating speed ordinance 6; violating local option law 2; vagrancy 1; drunkenness 2.

W. T. Dyer, justice of the peace reported collections of $110; city costs $2.20; j. p. costs $4.40. J. A. Crum, justice of the peace, reported collections of $113.50; city costs $18.90; j. p. costs, $37.20.

The resolutions whereby the council and citizens committee are on record with reference to the issuance of bonds only after satisfactory arrangements have been made for the land, is in language as follows:

Resolution Adopted.

"Jacksonville, Ill., June 10, 1918.

"The undersigned city commissioners of the city of Jacksonville, and members of the citizens' committee on the water proposition do hereby agree jointly, severally and individually, that in the event the issue of $75,000 water bonds is authorized at the election to be held June 18, 1918, no bond or bonds will be sold nor any contract in connection with the proposed extension of the water works be entered into until a sufficient amount of the land required for the reservoir is arranged for, and until the way is clear for beginning the work of construction.

MURRAYVILLE RED CROSS REPORT.

Harry Cade, representing the Murrayville finance committee of the state council of defense, was in Jacksonville Monday and paid to the Red Cross organization $1951.40, the total of moneys collected and pledged in the Red Cross campaign in Murayville was $2,707 and the difference between the amount paid in and that collected will be used for the benefit of the Murrayville Red Cross branch. The quota for the precinct was $1301. It is not the intention of the committee to publish all the names of persons who contributed because it will be practically impossible to in this way give credit to all. Money was raised for the Red Cross by the every member canvass, at a sale and at the Wayman meeting.

At this meeting a number of persons made pledges who have not signed cards. It is requested that such persons pay the money to J. L. Wyatt at the Murrayville bank or hand to him a signed pledge. This will put the record in satisfactory condition. The receipts for money are all in the hands of H. E. Million. The members of the committee wish to express their sincere appreciation of the generosity shown by the people and for the hearty spirit of co-operation manifested in the work.

MEN NEEDED FOR "Y" WORK ACROSS THE SEA

Six County Meeting Held Here Monday To Urge The Securing of Workers—3,000 Wanted by August 1

An important conference of Y. M. C. A. men from counties of Schuyler, Brown, Cass, Scott, Greene and Morgan was held in this city Monday. The men assembled at Peacock Inn for luncheon. There were from four to six men from each of the counties and they were very much intent upon their work. Mayor H. J. Rodgers, who is chairman of the Morgan county committee which seeks to recruit men for Y. M. C. A. work, presided. The address was made by E. C. Wolcott, who is in charge of the work in this part of Illinois.

Mr. Wolcott's purpose was to impress upon his hearers the absolute need there is for securing men for this work. There is a definite call for 3,000 men to be sent overseas service between now and the first day of August. In order to secure them it is necessary for a number of men to be furnished by each county. In addition to the men desired for overseas service, 600 are needed for work in the Y. M. C. A. buildings in this country Men are desired to serve as general secretaries, they are wanted in the mechanical or transportation department and they are also wanted for cantonement service. The rules of the government are such that no man under 31 can be taken and no man over 50 is desired, as it has been found that the overseas work is so rigorous that men over 50 cannot stand the strain.

The regulations of the government are such, furthermore, that no man of German ancestry can enter the service. A strict investigation is made to the loyalty and lineage of every man. The Y. M. C. A. organization is of course particular as to the character of men who enter this service. Mr. Wolcott said about as good a standard as can be set of the type of man wanted is "a man to whom you would entrust your son for a day, a month or for a year." While much of the work is not of a distinctly religious character, those who go overseas must often come in contact with men who are lonesome and homesick, with those who are sick and perhaps with those fatally wounded and whose days and hours are numbered. The Y. M. C. A. worker must be a man who, if the need arise, can give some comfort in the final hours, can read a verse of scripture or say a prayer.

Mr. Wolcott made a most impressive appeal as he told his hearers that the Y. M. C. A. has the funds and has the equipment and now what is lacking is the man power. The speaker described minutely the efficiency of the service, the Y. M. C. A. is giving overseas, clear up to the trenches and it is such a service that the French some time since asked that it be extended to their troops so great are the apparent benefits. The speaker made the point that men of mature years in this country, when the finest young men of the land are bearing the brunt of the conflict, and offering to sacrifice their lives, should certainly be willing to support and sustain them and give them that aid and comfort for which the Y. M. C. A. service at the front so strongly stands.

Each County Must Help.

Each county in the district is expected to furnish its quota of men very soon and Mr. Wolcott said that after men have qualified and the necessary papers have been filled out, that at best it would be several weeks before the men could actually be in New York waiting for transportation overseas. The Y. M. C. A. organization makes an allowance for each man in accordance with the needs of the family that he leaves at home. No man can enter the service abroad for less than one year, but it is not desired to require men to stay longer than that because the average man at the expiration of that period is in such a physical state of exhaustion that it is best for the work to supplant him with a new man. Mr. Wolcott had blank forms for distribution among the county workers and it is confidently expected that as a result of the meeting a number of men will be secured for this needed work.

PARK BOARD HELD MEETING MONDAY

Body Met Last Night Instead of Tonight—Number of Matters Given Consideration — First Ward Playground Opened For Season.

The park board held its regular meeting last evening instead of tonight. All bills presented were approved and ordered paid. The chair reported that the first ward playground had been formally opened for the season. Some of the apparatus is out of shape and will be repaired and some will wait a while till it is acertained that all will go well.

Miss Jennie F. Grassly was elected custodian with full police powers to attend the playground for the season. She will also keep it in order and see that all is kept so.

J. F. Shaefer, superintendent, reported that he had completed the siding up of the former monkey house and made it into rooms and it would be used by ladies only. It is expected that checking arrangements will be made for all who wish to leave their clothes and valuables there. The north structure heretofore used by men and boys only will now be set aside for boys under sixteen and the other devoted to the use of men.

Mr. Shaefer was instructed to hire horses to run the hay mower and put up the hay on the south side.

Secretary Brennan was insructed to have the swings in Duncan park repaired.

Mrs Weihl and Mr. Brennan were made a committee to purchase some needed tools and outfit for cutting grass.

The chair was instructed to have the teeter boards in the first ward playground and at Nichols park put in order.

W. H. Cocking was present and made an offer regarding oiling the drive ways in the park as far as the hitchracks south of the bridge; that is, both entrances north of the bridge and the road south as far as the hitchracks.

A. C. Rice of the Chautauqua board was present and while unable to make a definite offer, being only one of a committee which had not acted definitely said he was certain the chautauqua board would bear what they deemed a fair share of the expense of the oiling provided they have an assurance that it would endure thru the summer and keep down dust to the end of the season. No definite action. Mr. Cocking estimated the cost of the work at $350 to $400. Owing to the condition of the driveways, some spots needing much more than others.

The secretary reported the chain purchased and put in place in the posts marking the danger line in the swimming pool and he was instructed to secure some smaller posts and wire netting and mark off a space in which children might safely wade.

The superintendent reported a large number of persons, both boys and girls, using the swimming facilities and with suitable checking arrangements the number will doubtless increase.

It was the sense of the board that the checking concession should carry with it the keeping of a suitable person to act as a safety watch or life saver.

The superintendent had taken the old tri-plex mower to the shop for repairs which would soon be made and he was instructed to have the sickle bar of the hay mower sharpened.

OSAGE ORANGE PICNIC.

The annual osage orange picnic was held on the campus of Illinois college Monday evening. Friends of the college in large number gathered there in groups to enjoy the picnic supper. COLONIAL INN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Beautiful Building Used as Exclusive Apartment Residence Burned Monday Afternoon—Valued at $20,000—Only Partly Covered by Insurance.

Fire which was started by sparks from a chimney completely destroyed the Colonial Inn located at 1213 West State street Monday afternoon.

The structure was erected by J. Thompson Sharpe in 1901 and cost approximately $20,000. The property was acquired by Major E. C. Vickery in 1903. Since then he has made many improvements in the building which enhanced its value.

Owing to the lapse of a policy a few days ago which had not yet been renewed, Major Vickery only carried insurance to the amount of $5,000 on the building. The contents were valued at $15,000 and this loss also will be heavy.

All of the furniture and fixtures were removed from the first floor and part from the second floor. However, there was damage from breakage and nothing was removed from the third floor. Insurance to the amount of $8,000 was carried on the contents.

Fire Started From Chimney

According to Major Vickery the chimney in the kitchen was burning out earlier in the afternoon. Mr. Vickery went to the roof and stood watch until the danger apparently was passed. He then descended and came down town on business.

Evidently sparks afterward set fire to the roof and it was discovered about 3 o'clock and the alarm sent to the fire department. A quick response was made by the department but owing to the shortage of help not much could be done until volunteer help arrived.

Chief Hunt has six men in the department at the present time. One man is off each day which leaves five men. When an alarm is responded to one man must be left at the department. This leaves four men on the truck. One man is required to operate the motor for pumping. When the Inn was reached Assistant Chief Taylor went into the attic with a hand extinguisher and this left but two men to man a ladder and try to reach the roof.

Water Pressure Weak.

However, when volunteers arrived and the roof was gained, it was some time before enough pressure could be had to throw water on top of the roof. Fortunately there was but little wind stirring and that was blowing from the southeast.

The timbers were dry in the building and when the fire got started in the large roof of the building it spread with great rapidity. Tho every effort was made the roof soon fell and the flames attacked the big colonial porch. The flames ate their way thru the cornice and in a few moments the porch was a ruin. But little is left of the structure.

The nearest residence to the Inn is that of S. O. Barr. However, this was apparently in no danger at all tho a close watch was kept on it. The residence of W. L. Fay on the west is separated from the Inn by two vacant lots and was in no danger, but owing to the absence of the family at the time friends watched to see that no sparks settled on the roof.

Elderly Women Prostrated.

Mrs. Irvin Dunlap and sister, Mrs. Morton two elderly ladies, resident at the Inn were prostrated for a time. They were removed to the residence of M. F. Dunlap and given attention and it is not thought they will suffer any ill effects from their experience.

Volunteers Give Aid.

Students from Illinois College, the State School for the Deaf and the Boy Scouts gave valuable assistance in removing the furniture and assisting the firemen.

The forces were marshaled by Joel Crouch, B. F. Lane and Fred Darr. Coach Hoover of the high school faculty, Rev. E. B. Landis, W. T. Wilson and C. W. Taylor also gave valuable assistance. Hoover with other gained the roof and did valiant work, tho it was some time before they were able to get sufficient water pressure to work with. Walter DeShara and Harry Obermeyer were prominent among the volunteers.

William Breeding, the well known chimney sweep displayed great bravery when he entered a second floor room on a ladder and carried down a trunk. The trunk contained valuable papers and some liberty bonds and clothing. The room was in flames and Breeding was compelled to step over a burning hole in the floor to reach the trunk.

The Colonial Inn was one of the show places of Central Illinois. A beautiful building, its location was ideal and every visitor who saw it was carried away by its beauty.

For a number of years it has been conducted by Major and Mrs. E. C. Vickery as an exclusive apartment residence and has been the scene of many notable gatherings. Its loss will be a source of regret to all citizens. It is not known whether or not Mr. Vickery will rebuild.

It goes without saying that Major and Mrs. Vickery will have the sympathy of the entire community in the heavy loss which has come to them at this time. As indicated above only a few days ago an insurance policy of $7,000 was allowed to lapse on the building.

One cause of delay in fighting the flames was the fact that one of the motor trucks was caught in the unpaved space between the rails of the street car track at the Webster avenue corner. William Catherwood was driving the truck and started to place it near the hydrant at the School for the deaf when the accident happened. The track at this point is in very dangerous condition and the wonder is that some bad accident has not happened.

VESPER SERVICE.

The vesper service on the college campus Sunday was beautiful and well attended.

Rev. E. B. Landis presided; Rev. R. B. Wilson read the scripture lesson and Rev. W. E. Spoonts offered prayer. The singing was excellent, Mrs. Bullard accompanying on the piano. A special number by two young ladies of the Woman's College was much appreciated. The patriotic hymn, "America" was heartily sung. Mr. Shoemaker of the college leading. Rev. A. P. Higley was again the speaker of the occasion. He took for his text 1 Peter 2:9: "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light."

Like the effort in the morning, the sermon on this occasion was excellent. Dr. Higley speaks with especial earnestness and throws his whole soul into his discourse. His theme was to show how the inhabitants of this nation may be classed according to the text and as a consequence to set forth the great obligations devolving on a nation possessing such advantages and position.

BEGINNING ON THE RUINS.

A partial force of workmen went after the ruins of the high school building yesterday and made a decided impression. They tore down quite a quantity of wall and removed some of the debris and made a start on cleaning the brick. When Mr. Barbre gets a full force at work he will make things move right lively.

Dr. Higley Tells Graduating Class of Illinois College—Baccalaureate Sermon Powerful Effort—Must Trust in God of Love.

State Street church presented fine appearance Sunday morning on the occasion of the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Illinois College. The graduating class, faculty, trustees and students occupied special seats reserved for them. Dr Rammelkamp presided, Rev. C. B. Wilson pronounced the invocation, Rev. E. B. Landis read the scripture lesson, Rev. W. E. Collins offered prayer. The music and vesper services were all fine. Dr. P. Higley, the speaker of the day, delivered a powerful sermon of which only a short outline is presented. He said in part:

"Twenty years ago I heard a sermon as a member of a graduating class. Dr. Scoville was the minister and altho I cannot remember the text I have never forgotten the impression that it made upon me at that time. Today I call your attention to the words found in Corinthians 8-37. 'We are more than conquerors thru Him who loved us and gave Himself for us.'

"That is not a laboratory nor a class room text but one by a man who knew the difficulties of life about him. He had spoken about these things be cause his heart was in it and he knew whereof he spoke and the conditions prevailing at that time. And he had not forgotten what he had passed thru nor the grand triumph he had achieved thru the love of a great Redeemer.

Opportunities of Today.

"This, young friend, is a text for you. The commencement speaker need not add adjectives to it because it speaks for itself. You have unusual opportunities and a wonderful career lies before you. All entering and facing life today have before them influences at work which never existed before. Paul spoke of the powers which could be overcome by the love of Christ. There are three characteristics of which I speak today. The conditions today are unprecedented.

"Four years ago a man was murdered in Servia and thru the ambition and greed of an unprincipaled monarch and people the whole earth has been divided into two sections. On one side are the Germans seeking for prey, utterly regardless of life, of liberty, of the finest instincts of mankind, bent solely upon murder and conquest. Upon the other side are the forces striving for the right.

America Fighting for Peace

"America has been drawn into this great war by purely unselfish motives. We cannot go back, for our duty is before us. We have today a peculiar paradox. We are fighting and shedding blood for the sake of peace. It seems strange but so it is. You cannot be one thing and do another and yet it would seem as if our country was doing that today. We are facing the greatest military nation of the world. We are to crush potsdam gang and throw ourselves into the war with our whole power, that good may come of it—that righteousness may prevail and that the world may be made a safe place for people to live in.

"We believe in peace but we seek it according to the dictates of our conscience. We must fight or be overthrown and crushed by a tyrant, and let us so stand that when our enemies fall back and we march thru Berlin triumphant, it shall never be said of us that we are the fiends that we are facing today. We make a grand effort to end this war but months of suffering must follow and we must face the inevitable.

"Our Civil War was fought to crush slavery and secession. The war of the Revolution was fought against the oppression of a cruel king, but we are fighting against a country which would crush the world and with a damnable ambition would ruin men, women and children, sparing neither the age nor the young but crushing all alike that their ends may be attained. These are the conditions which are before us and our duty is clear, and thru Him who loved us and gave Himself for us we shall conquer for we know that we are in the right.

"All kinds of wrongs have existed but it is ours to right them and remove the scarlet letter from many a breast. Evil is not all powerful, nor can I say that all is dark, for there is much light, and there is no sin so black that cannot be made white by the blood of the Lamb.

Must Make Great Sacrifices

"In all these things we conquer thru Him. I do not know why God does not save the world sooner but right is coming and God reigns and evil will be overcome as it ever has been. Righteousness will be triumphant and so in all things let us remember our source of strength. Will it not be grand when our young men return with glory—perhaps with honorable scars—but with a feeling that they have crushed the tyrant and freed the world. Will it not be noble? The war will cause the loss of many lives the sacrifices must be great, but it is inevitable so let us face it bravely and unflinchingly.

"Young people, today your watchword should be service. Our flag must be kept floating and there is something for everyone to do. Some must go to the front; some must die; some must languish on beds of pain ;some must suffer from wounds; hearts must ache at home and people must give of their means freely. We must all work in this great cause before us, remembering always the grand watchword, "In Him we triumph." Then the man who has little left and the man who has much will be made equal.

War Will Be Great Leveler

"This war is going to be a great leveler. Some will be leveled up and some leveled down, but from it good must follow. Side by side in the trenches two men are fighting One is a criminal from the bowery, the other a preacher; but side by side they fight and if they live side by side will they march home, triumphant and victorious.

"The treasure house of knowledge is not enough, tho important. Common sense must be used as well as judgment. The book man alone will be a failure, the bookworm will be of little use."

"But we must use everything that we have in the one great cause, and practice common sense with all our efforts. In a squad at the front were four educated men, two clerks and two laborers, and these eight men side by side overcame a far greater force of the enemy.

Will Conquer Thru Christ

"The best judgment of all who have looked into this question is that this conflict will be long. It will be hard. It will be costly in life and treasure. But victory will belong to the right and in Christ we shall conquer. And may it be said that we have conquered with this grand ideal before us.

"At one time John Bright sat almost alone but finally the world say that he was right and he conquered thru Christ. The Germans cannot win this war, it cannot be that such murderers will ever possesss this earth God reigns and the world is safe, and tho the cost will be great we shall conquer. Man will be more than victor if he is wiling to be defeated that others may conquer, so the brave men who lay down life in this cause will have a renown that comes to no others.

"We must not be like the Germans trusting in the sword alone, but must trust in the God of love and in these things we shall be more than conquers.

MORTUARY

Cochran.

Dr. C. C. Cochran has received word of the death of his twin brother Joshua at Hamilton, Ill. Deceased was born in Pennsylvania, March 10, 1849 and came to this state with his parents in 1862 and has lived pretty much all that time in the west part of the state. The twin boys were named for the brave spies of the children of Israel, Caleb and Joshua, who alone of all who went up to look over the land came back with courage and willingness to go ahead and take the land. At that time it was decreed by the Creator that all adults who left Egypt should wander in the wilderness till they died for their lack of faith made them unworthy to enter the promised land.

MORGAN COUNTY FARMERS' CLUB NOTES
By George B. Kendall, County Agent.

Soil Tests

Last week the county agent visited a number of farms southwest of Franklin. The owners are all interested in soil improvement. The soil on all of the farms visited was tested for acidity. Orders for limestone from that neighborhood will be numerous in the near future.

Alfalfa Near Murrayville.

The rain last Thursday interfered with the schedule of farm visits planed for the vicinity of Murrayville. On Friday a number of visits were made, and everybody was certainly at work. There are no slackers there. David Stansfield and son were making the first cutting of a piece of alfalfa seeded late last summer. The field containing about six acres lies along a creek. Previous to seeding the field, each acre received five tons of ground limestone and a ton of rock phosphate. The seed was inoculated by the glue method and infected soil was also scattered over the field and harrowed in. Altho this treatment cost some money, the crop is there to justify it. It semed to be yielding about three big loads to the acre.

Requests for Boys.

The callers at the office in the Court house Saturday were numerous. Many requests were made for boys enrolled in the Boys' Reserve. Altho the first lot of these has been placed, it is expected that other Volunteers will be forthcoming.

Call for Volunteers.

The only other source of farm labor to help the farmer over the busy season is the volunteer labor from the towns. Jacksonville will doubtless do her part in this as well as in the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army, and War Savings Drives. If volunteers will sign up for wheat shocking, farmers will come in after them in autos and return them at night. A U. S. Department official has promised to come here to assist us in organizing for this work.

Responsibility of Towns and Cities in Supplying Farm Labor.

Prosperity of the villages, towns, and cities in the agricultural regions is measured by the production of the surrounding farms.

If there are poor crops, the farmers have little money to spend for clothing, furniture and other necessities. When the crops are good, money flows into the community and both farmer and business man alike are benefited.

More directly at this time people of our towns and cities are interested in a larger food production, so that there may be a big surplus to feed the Army, Navy, and the Allies.

Business men should aid farmers in obtaining sufficient labor to plant and harvest the crops. Farmers should be urged to go ahead with their farm work and assured of sufficient labor to handle the products.

WHIPPLE GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Twelve Are in Graduating Class —Program One of Merit— Three Members of Class With Colors.

A goodly number of people responded to the invitation to enjoy the commencement exercises of Whipple Academy on the College Campus yesterday morning.

Principal J. P. McCoy presided and introduced Rev. W. R. Lo[illegible] who offered the invocation. Miss Sylvan F. Hofsess then favored the audience with a piano solo finely rendered and entitled "A Basket of Roses."

All the other music was by persons connected with the conservatory. Each graduate was required to required to prepare a commencement part from which the numbers on the program were chosen.

Miss Sylvia Taylor read the class history which set forth in a pleasing manner the leading events in the lives of the young people in academy; the ups and downs; the disappointments and triumphs of the courses were well set forth.

Byron Cully read the class prophecy and it contained many good hits and much clever forecast. He drew largely on his imagination as a matter of course and predicted some wonderful careers for the members of the class.

Horatio Green read the class will which disposed of the belongings of those about to leave the academy; the production caused much amusement for all who heard it.

Miss Helen Sorrells pleased the audience with a violin number after which Charles Nickel of Concord delivered a carefully prepared oration on "Grant. A Man Honored". He depicted in glowing terms the career of the silent man whose great energy and unusual ability as commander was such a potent factor in saving the land from secession and slavery.

Miss Alice Bray followed with a declamation, "Ann of Green Gables," a selection which gave the young lady ample scope for her versatile talents as a declaimer.

An essay, "The Law of Compensation" by Miss Katheryn Powers was a fine production. She showed that in all things there is compensation for effort. "Whatsoever a man soweth shall he also reap" was well set forth in the writing of the young lady. All have ample reason for ambition and effort.

The last number was an excellent oration by Miss Violet Murphy, "Life or Existence" being the theme. She ably portrayed the difference between the person with true ambition who made all possible effort to accomplish some worthy object in life and the one who cared little so he had enough for his bare necessities.

Announced Prize Winners

Principal McCoy then announced the prizes for declamation, First to Charles Nickel and second to Miss Golda Taylor. The scholarship was awarded Miss Sylvia Taylor as she had been at the academy four years but the marks of Miss Violet Murphy were so good a special endowed scholarship was awarded her. The scholraship for the boys was not announced.

Principal McCoy spoke in a feeling manner of Russell Bronson who would have graduated with the class had he not joined the colors and Lester Smith and Elmer Filson, two young men of the class who had enlisted in the defense of their country.

Diplomas were then presented as follows:

Regular Diploma

Alice Kathleen Bray,
Byron Oliver Cully,
Felix Martin Farrell,
Horatio McDonald Green,
Violet Josephine Murphy,
Charles Herman Nickel,
Katheyrn Power,
Frances Mary Strawn,
Sylvia Isabel Taylor,
John R. Wilson.

Special Diploma

Slyvan Lois Hofsess.

The benediction by Rev. F. M. Rule, D. D., closed the exercises after which Principal and Mrs. McCoy tendered a reception to the members of the class and their immediate friends.

AMERICAN WOMEN DECLARED LOAFERS.

Chicago, June 10.—American women speaking generally were declared to be "loafers, struggling along in high heeled shoes and unable to work even if they wanted to" by Dr. Esther Lovejoy, former health commissioner of Portland, Ore., in an address to the Medical Women's National association today.

Dr. Lovejoy who has just returned from a six months' visit to France, declared that the women of Germany made possible the progress of the war, for she said, "if the women of Germany had lain down their arms and ceased doing the work of the men, the war would have been over long since.

"Here the big thing for the women to replace the men in order that our full man power may be sent to the aid of the allies. The southland is crying for harvest hands, a splendid place for women golfers and tennis players, for we only have to be as good as our grand mothers who made for us this great land for us to loaf in."

Here is Speedy Relief From Kidney Troubles

"Foley Kidney Pills have done me a heap of good." A. T. Barlett, Brockton, Mass.

Some days it seems as if you can no longer bear the pain and misery you suffer from kidney and bladder trouble. The ache across your back grows worse with every move you make, and with every step you take. It not only robs you of all your strength and energy, but it affects the other important organs of the body as well. Nervousness, headache, disordered stomach, liver trouble, bad eyesight, are only some of the conditions that follow kidney trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills help the sick weak kidneys to regain their normal healthy state and activity. When they are again able to do their work effectively, your system is no longer choked and blocked with poisonous waste matter. Your symptoms clear up, your weariness, pain, misery and weakness go away. Foley Kidney Pills can do you also "a heap of good." J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

FEW DROPS AND CORNS LIFT OUT

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can be harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of Freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store which is sufficient to rid one's feet of callus without pain, soreness or the danger of infection.

This simple drug, while stiffens dries the moment it is applied, does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heel footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.—Adv.

AN OVERLAND CAR GOES TO MR. LEWIS OF LITERBERRY

. . Coy M. Lewis, through the sub-agent, O. L. Crum at Literberry, has shown his good judgment in buying of the Overland Berger-Pine Co. a 90 touring Overland car.

OBITUARY.

About twenty five years ago Joseph Vedder, with his wife, Forna and their three little boys came among us and established their home a half mile south of what is now the village of Nortonville.

In the season of showers and flowers—in the springtime—May 16, 1896 the first baby girl came into the arms of her mother and the care of her father.

She was named Lena Augusta and this name came to mean the household pet, and joy of her parents the idol of her brothers.

In this home she grew up among us, the liveliest and cheeriest among all her associates.

In December 1910, at the age of fourteen, during a meeting conducted by the Rev. John W. Rhodes, she yielded to the call of the Great Spirit and enlisted under the banner of King Emanuel, and became a member of his organized church known locally as the Youngblood Baptist church.

Among her play mates and school mates a boy was growing up, and between the two came the cordial friendly relation which ripened unto the true love that so binds hearts together, and she was married Dec. 2, 1914 to Albert Augustus Henry.

Into this home came the baby boy, Wayne Augustus, now two and a half years old.

In the natural way the love of the father and mother and the faithful husband and the innocent child, would alike claim her to be forever with us, but since by sin death came into the world she, as we, was subject to the attack of the enemy, and after a struggle of months' duration and after all aid that could be had from every source was administered by the hand of the ablest of physicians, and after all that human love and sympathy could do, she was claimed by the 'Reaper' whose name is Death. Who with his sickle keen. He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, and the flowers that grow between.

The end came at Midday on June 7, 1918 in the house just north of Murrayville. She went out as the vanquished, but days before, she saw the time approaching, and carefully made all her plans, as a person prepares for a journey. When everything was ready, she bade her loved ones farewell, charging them with the greatest treasure, her baby, and his care and Christian teaching. Her failing voice seemed to echo from a distance her last "Good-bye, good-bye" as death was robbed at the last moment of his victim, and her Savior into whose hand she had commended her spirit, and to whom she had given her heart years ago, came with a legion of angels such as can not be overcome, and she joined the heavenly host and soared away into the great beyond where she is safe from all harm, and where she serves her Redeemer, in the Eternal Sunshine, and the beautiful scenes of the Paradise of God.

On this side she leaves the husband and baby, father and mother and her brothers, Henry of California, Frank in the service of his country, as a soldier in Texas and George Jesse and Virgil and one sister Mary died in infancy.

So end a beautiful life that leaves its influence as an example for us to follow, and so begins a new life in the spirit world.

The funeral services were conducted from the Youngblood Baptist church by the Rev. N. M. Antrobus with music furnished by the local choir, interment was made in the cemetery nearby.

The bearers were Chester Hull, Claude Bolton, Lloyd Sorrells, Verne Grider and William Edwards, while the flowers were cared for by Ada Hull, Sadie Wild, Edith Kehl and Minnie Bolton.

The profusion of beautiful flowers and the large assembly of friends, only show how widely the deceased was known and how dearly she was loved.

The family wish to express to all friends and neighbors their appreciation of kindness shown in their time of need and sore bereavement.

Friend.

Having been called to active service, money due me should be paid at once to Mrs. A. O. Magill, Concord, Illinois.

HARRY OBERMEYER RESCUES BATHER

Saves Miss Nellie Ornellas from Drowning at Nichols Park.

Prompt action by Harry Obermeyer saved Miss Nellie Ornellas from drowning at Nichols park about 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Miss Ornellas was among the bathers and Mr. Obermeyer was sitting on the bank watching them He said that apparently Miss Ornellas slipped and lost her hold on one of the posts that have been set in the beach.

She evidently became strangled and made no sound. However Mr. Obermeyer saw her slip from the post and go under and tried to attract the attention of a number of men who were in the water.

He was unable to make them hear him and in order to save the young woman's life he entered the water with all his clothing on. This made it difficult for him to swim but he succeeded in getting Miss Ornellas from the water.

She was soon resuscitated and was taken to her home, 975 North Prairie street.

PEOPLE MUST HELP NURSES TO SERVE.

The graduate nurses of America are coming to the aid of army and navy, in response to the call of Surgeons General Gorgas and Braisted, as everyone knew they would when the need was shown. Twenty-five a day are enrolling in Chicago alone, and proportionate numbers in other centers. In addition, letters are pouring in from all points asking how to proceed.

The nurses themselves will enlist. Getting them was the easiest part of the campaign which opened on June 3.

Another problem is to get young women to enter training schools to prepare themselves to fill the places left vacant by the nurses going into service. It is proposed to open training schools for nurses at various army camps where the students will have ample experience. Later they will be sent to civil hospitals for graduation.

The greatest task of all is to make the public understand that its part in the nurses' campaign is very important. The public must supply these student nurses—they are the sisters and daughters of the people. The public must also learn to get along with less nursing, to let just as many nurses as possible go into service or into the hospitals where they are vitally necessary.

Army and navy, government officers and the heads of nursing bureaus, all are calling on the peopleto back up the Red Cross, and help to enroll the 25,000 nurses which must behad this year for our fighting men; and to build up a reserve for the other thousands that must be had for the years of war which may yet face us.

DESIGNS DRAW NFOR NEW CENTENNIAL COIN

Illinois Centennial Commission to Decide on Design for New Half Dollar in Near Future—Will Be Sought as Souvenirs.

Springfield, Ill., June 10.—Designs are being drawn for the new Illinois Centennial half dollar, provision for which is made in an act aopted by Congress and signed by the President, a few days ago. Several designs are being considered and the Illinois Centennial Commission will decide upon one in the near future which will be presented to the Director of the Mint with the request that it be made the official design. There will be one hundred thousand of these coins and they will be eagerly sought as souvenirs.

The bill was introduced in Congress by Representative Loren E. Wheeler of Springfield and was fathered in the Senate by Senators James Hamilton Lewis and Lawrence Y. Sherman. Following the passage of the bill Senator Lewis, in thanking the senate, said:

"At this particular time I could not allow this measure to pass, carrying as it does the tribute of the senate to the State, without also calling the attention of the senate to the sacrifice the state has made, the glory it reflects upon the union, the credit it is to the republic, and the honor it is to the country. We pas no ferflection upon any state but I have a feeling that when the present cataclysm is ended and the world shall look into a blue sky for some guiding star to shape the course of those who will remold the future, the prophets of the coming day will turn their eyes to America and behold in the distance, among others, the great state of Illinois and, by her side, her immortal Lincoln."

INDEPENDENTS LOSE TO MURRAYVILLE

Visitors Win Game Sunday by Score of 6 to 5—Poor Baserunning and Failure to Hit With Men on Caused Defeat.

Following a time honored custom the Murrayville Ramblers defeated the Independents at West Side Park Sunday afternoon by a score of 6 to 5.

It was the best game to look at from the spectators standpoint that has been played this season as it was filled with thrills from start to finish, tho it was a loosely played game.

Both teams hit the ball hard in spots and then the pitchers tightened up and seemed to have the situation under control.

Kitner opposed Kitchin on the mound. He yielded eleven hits but kept them well scattered and was effective with men on bases, frequently striking out men when a hit would have meant a run.

Kitchin only allowed seven hits but they were mixed with the locals errors and resulted in runs. He struck out eight men while Kitner made 15 of the Indees walk away from the pan by the whiff route.

About one of the niftiest players in the game was Tom Doyle, the veteran receiver of the Ramblers. Doyle pegged to bases like a youngster just starting out. His aim was deadly and cut down a number of attempted steals. Briggs was seen at short for the Indees and played a stellar game. He fielded perfectly and made three safeties. He looks to be the goods and will add strength to the team.

Christopher was the hitting fool of the day, getting three safeties, a single, double and a home run. The latter came with a man on and Cooper, center fielder for the Ramblers nearly ran himself to death before he caught up with the ball.

One of the features of the game was the base running of DeFrates. "Happy" was on second when Riggs hit to Kitner. The ball rolled under the pitcher's glove and DeFrates took advantage of the umpire's interest in the play at first base and cut across the diamond and scored. Of course there was a big howl but the umpire didn't see it and it went. The score:

Now Is the Time to Prepare

You will soon be in the harvest field. Then comes the threshing. You should have good tight beds for hauling the grain as we cannot afford to waste any. Our country needs all we can save and a few dollars spent for a good, light-running wagon, with a perfect grain-tight bed will save money for you as well as conserve the grain we need so badly.

The MILLER

—A genuine, straight grain, hewed out hickory axle. The best of white oak hubs, spokes, and felloe. Bone dry and will stand up in any climate. Light running.

—Hand painted — by the old fashioned system. Best of oil and lead. All parts of gear boiled in oil before ironing. Tire put on hot and will stay on for years.

If there were a better wagon made we would have it. Give us the opportunity of proving to you that we have what you want.

S. M. HENDERSON RENEWED ACQUAINTANCE

Journal's Concord Correspondent Has Interesting Visit at the Home of Mrs. Stephen Braner of East College Street—Other Concord Notes.

Concord, June 10.—On Saturday a Journal reporter visited Mrs. Stephen Braner at her home, 523 East College street, and renewed an acquaintance extending back to 1863. Mrs. Braner was born a short distance west of Jacksonville near Wabash R. R. Her maiden name was Miss Dyer. In 1863, Mr. and Mrs. Braner lived on what is known as the Smith farm, a little more than two miles southwest of Concord. The log house they lived in was torn down by the writer about 27 years ago. These good people moved to a farm west of Arcadia and built a new home. It, too, was of logs, and was a marvel of neatness. Here they lived and reared the two boys, Wm. H. and Edward. William and his wife are dead, and Edward and family live now in Memphis, Tenn., and are prospering. Mr. Braner, Sr., died some years ago, and the widow now lives in a neat little home, as above stated, on College street. Mrs. Braner is a ready talker, and it was indeed a pleasure to listen to the telling of her experiences in the three-fourths of a century and more that have gone by since she was born. She invited us to see her garden—and such a garden. It is chock full of the things usually grown in a garden, and it was a picture to see. Nice, even rows, and all the plants in a high state of cultivation and not a weed to be seen. And just to think that this old lady, 76 years of age, did all the work except one hour, when she had a man to help. I said 76 years. Yes, but she does not look a day over 60.

On May 30th she wanted to go to the Arcadia Decoration Day services and meet a host of her old friends living, and visit the last resting place of those gone on before. She had no one to go with her, but nothing daunted, she got a horse and buggy and went alone.

Mrs. Braner delights to see her old friends from the country when they come to town. On Saturday she was joking with Charles Ogle and told him that she had put up many a shock of corn in her younger days and declares that she can still put up a shock that will not twist or fall down, and that she means to try it next fall and show some of the men what she can do. We left her after a very pleasant two hours' chat and hope she will reach the century mark.

All three Concord churches have now had their Children's Day service. The M. P. church had a large crowd and a good service on Sunday morning of the second, and the Christian church held a service on Sunday evening of the same day. It was a patriotic exercise of an inspiring character. On Sunday night last the M. E. school gave a mixed program to a very large audience. All the Concord children are good in this work and always furnish splendid entertainments.

Some of the Chapin people attended services at the Christian church here on Sunday morning and gave Minister C. G. Cantrell an invitation to preach for them on Sunday night, and he complied with their request. The Chapin church is without a minister now.

George Hazelwood and Miss Mary Titus were united in marriage at the home of the bride in the east part of Concord, at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, Rev. Thomas Seymour, officiating. Miss Titus is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Titus, and is a young lady who has made good, in the home and in the school room where she taught school. Mr. Hazelwood has a good position with the Joy Prairie Elevator company. They both have a wide circle of friends who join with your reporter in wishing them joy and prosperity through their married life. They will reside in Joy Prairie.

Dr. A. O. Magill has closed his office here and entered the service of his country. As a consequence, Dr. and Mrs. Magill will be greatly missed by the many friends they have made here. Another star was added to the service flag of the First M. E. church on Sunday night, and Mrs. Magill by invitation had the honor of pinning the star on the flag. Dr. Magill is a young man of talent and ability and will make good wherever he is sent.

STOCK MARKET SMALL

New York, June 10.—Transactions in stocks today barely aggregated 275,000 shares, the smallest in almost a month.

Resumption of the German drive in direction of Paris and indications of continuance of enemy U-boat activity in nearby waters were the principal factors halting the market.

United States steel moved listlessly and narrowly and closed at one point loss, related stocks fluctuatede in similar degree but a few speculative issues including Sumatra Tobacco, Texas company and Baldwin locomotive recorded variable gains. Rails were negligible some of the high grade shares remaining in complete obscurity thruout the session but shippings were firm to strong, marine preferred making an extreme gain of 2¾ points and Atlantic gulf 1⅝.

Liberty bonds yielded part of last week's recovery total bond sales (par value) $6,250,000.

CORN GAINS STRENGTH

Chicago, June 10.—Corn developed strength today on prospective curtailment if receipts. The close was firm, 2⅞c to 3¼c nete higher with July $1.39⅞ to $1.40, and August $1.40⅞.

Oats gained ⅞c to 1⅝c. The finish in provisions ranged from 30c decline to five cents advance.

Upturns in corn prices began chiefly on unfavorable weather conditions. Predictions of generally fair skies caused a temporary bearish reaction, but which offerings were eabsorbed and this lead to a fresh advance. In the late dealings shorts covered freely, and the close was at virtually the topmost level of the session. Oats reflected the changes in corn.

Big exports of lard and meats made provisions average higher.

SUIT NEW BUT HOLE IN SHOE

Bad Teeth Like Bad Shoes Spoil Fine Bress and Good Looks

PEOPLE NEGLIGENT IN CARE OF MOUTH

Senreco Tooth Paste Powerful To Save the Teeth and Prevent Diseases

"All dressed up with a hole in his shoe," was a bit of sarcasm a girl flung at a young man friend whose entire outfit was new except his punctured shoes. Right enough, too. Either to man or woman a shabby pair of shoes would spoil the appearance of the most elegant garments ever worn.

What about the teeth? Dress in all the finery you please, if you open your mouth exposing a decayed set of teeth your attractiveness ends right there. That's a hole in the shoe for you. This applies both to men and women. Girls, and young men, you lose half the admiration which would be directed toward you if you have bad teeth. You can't be pleasing with a mouthful of decay. You can't be healthy either. The condition of the teeth have a telling influence on other organs of the body. Bad teeth affect the intestines, stomach, heart, and even the eyes. Medical science shows that bad teeth produce unhealthy conditions all over the body.

With Senreco Tooth Paste at your service—a scientifically prepared preventive of Pyorrhea—there's no need of falling a prey to these ills. No need of having a mouthful of decayed teeth. Used regularly on a set of good teeth the deadly germs have little chance to enter. If they should enter they can't exist long under its thorough cleansing properties. As a cleanser and preventive of disease of the teeth it is positively reliable. Advanced cases should be treated by your dentist.

Use Senreco Tooth Paste as a preventative. Ask your dentist if you should not pay all attention to your teeth. Of course we won't say our Tooth Paste will cure Pyorrhea. If you already have it, your dentist is the doctor. Even if you are afflicted with his terrible disease Senreco Tooth Paste will help you to get rid of it, with your dentist's assistance. But we don't want you to contract any ailment of the mouth and teeth, nor does your dental doctor.

A preventive is far better than to have to go through the trials of a cure. Save your teeth by Senreco Tooth Paste and the probability is that you won't have to deal with foul and painful diseases. By taking excellent care of your teeth you may save stomach, intestinal, heart and eye troubles. Take all precaution to keep the teeth clean and do it with Senreco Tooth Paste, the latest discovery of dental science. Sample of Senreco free if you wish it. Senreco Tooth Paste, Cincinnati, Ohio.

CENTENNIAL BANNER TO BE DISPLAYED

Emblem to Be Unfurled Together With American Flag on Flag Day, June 14—Plan to Be Followed By Centennial Organizations Thruout the State.

Springfield, Ill., June 10.—Local centennial organizations thruout the state are adopting the plan of displaying the centennial banner together with the American flag on Flag Day, June 14. No official effort has been made to have this done, but reports received by the State Centennial Commission indicate that there is a feeling in many localities that the patriotism of Illinois can be expressed in a more intimate way by the display of the banner and the flag together.

The centennial banner is now being manufactured in large quantities by flag and decorating houses to supply the growing demand from every part of Illinois. In most communities, it has been placed on sale in the department and dry goods stores and can be obtained by the general trade at the same prices charged for the American flag. It is designed to be displayed with the national colors and makes an artistic appearance when arranged in that way.

The banner, which has been adopted by the State Legislature by law as the official flag of the centennial, is blue and white. A large blue strip runs down the middle with a white stripe above and below. A large white star representing Illinois, is on the blue stripe next to the staff, and ten blue stars appear on each of the white stripes representing the ten Southern states of the Union at the time Illinois, the twenty first state was admitted in 1818.

Thruout its campaign for a centennial observance, the Illinois Centennial Commission has urged that particular stress be placed upon the part Illinois has had in the building of the nation as a further incentive to patriotic endeavor on the part of Illinois citizens at this time. For this reason, local centennial officials have decided that the display of the centennial banner and the American flag very generally on Flag day would be especially appropriate.

IMPORTANCE OF CAMP TAYLOR INCREASED

War Department Will Utilize Kentucky Camp as Field Artillery Training, Replacement and Firing Center—84th Division to be Transferred to Camp Sherman, Ohio.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., June 10.—Completion of plans are near for removal of the entire 84th (Lincoln) Division of the National Army, composed of soldiers hailing from Indiana, Kentucky and Southern Illinois under command of Maj. Gen. Harry G. Hale, from Camp Zachary Taylor to Camp Sherman at Chillicothe, O. The 84th will succeed the 83rd Division, which moves away from the latter Cantonment.

Announcement from Washington says that the importance of Camp Zachary Taylor as a military training camp is to be increased. The War Department intends to utilize it continuously to its maximum capacity for the duration of the war as a field artillery training, replacement and firing center. The Field Artillery Range at West Point, Ky., considered an auxiliary of Camp Zachary Taylor, the same applying to the rifle range at South Park, Ky., will become a rival of Fort Sill, Okla., as a school of fire. Fort Sill is one of the largest schools of its kind in the country.

The barracks to be vacated by the Division at Camp Zachary Taylor will afford accommodations for at least three artillery brigades. Tentative plans, it is asserted, provide for the preliminary training of artillery units here, the finishing touches to be applied at the West Point range, where the men will have actual firing and target practice. The units will alternate in using the range.

Drafted men of future calls, it is said, will go to France after much shorter periods of training than hertofore, now that arrangements have been completed for training of larger bodies of troops from America in England and France. The preliminary training, apparently, will cover a sixteen weeks course, after which the men will go overseas, where development comes with greater speed.

Incoming recruits, military authorities say, will not be trained in state units at cantonments near their homes in the future, but will be sent to camps wherever they are needed. This undoubtedly means the scattering of quotas all over the country. Men of a certain locality, however, may be placed together but no effort will be made to organize regiments of troops from the same state.

Officer Inspects Camp Taylor Units.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., June 10.—Major General Harry C. Hale, commanding the 84th Division, National Army, in training here, has commenced a personal inspection of every organization under his command. Staff officers declined to discuss in detail the reasons for the inspection other than to say it would reach every unit here, whether large or small.

The 335th Infantry was the first unit to be scanned. It assembled near the cantonment with al its fighting possessions present from the water carts to machine guns. Tents were pitched and bedding, mess kits, and all other equipment was placed in front of each man. Walking along several hundred quickly formed company streets every soldier and his equipment, mules and horses, not omitting the supply train and medical detachment, were scanned critically by the general.

Officers and men said the order for inspection came as a complete surprise, but they felt they had made a creditable showing. At mid day the organizations were dismissed for dinner. In the afternoon the various companies with all equipment, including the packs strapped to soldiers' backs were checked.

No Furloughs On Account of Farm Work

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., June 10.—Indiana, Kentucky, and Southern Illinois members of the National Army in training here who have applied for furloughs to work on farms have slight chances to obtain them, it is said. While no definite policy has been announced by the division headquarters, furloughs are being granted only to those who have excellent reasons for being absent from camp. Thousands of such applications are on file in the office of Major Gen. Harry C. Hale. Altho a few leaves of absence have been granted a time soon will arrive, it is said, when no reason will obtain a furlough for a man, for it is the general policy of the military authorities to rule that the military necessity of the time is greater than the agricultural or other necessities.

Early in the spring it was announced at Washington that skilled agriculturists drafted into the National Army would be given furloughs upon presentation of proper applications. Military authorities, in turning down many applications in the face of that announcement, have taken into consideration that many colleges and secondary schools close in the near future and thereby the need for farm workers would be supplied to a great extent.

Unfit are Eliminated from 84th Division.

Selectives at Camp Zachary Taylor suspected of being unfit for the arduous duty ahead of the division when it arrives overseas, are being weeded out of the organization as they are discovered. Enemy aliens and other foreign born selectives, conscientious objectors and others are the men undergoing the weeding out process. All infantry regiments and organizations are being combed to dispose of the unfit, because when the 84th Division goes to Europe it will include only picked men.

Officers Wear White Shirts.

In contrast to an order issued at Camp Sherman at Chillicothe, O., placing a ban on white collars and shirts and instructing the command to wear only khaki colored shirts, the officers and enlisted men at Camp Zachary Taylor are wearing white shirts. Instructions recently arrived from the War Department ordering every officer to provide himself with at least twenty white collars, six white shirts, and a dozen pairs of white cuffs.

Attention Called to Rules of Saluting.

Attention to the rules of saluting has been called by an order issued by Major General Harry C. Hale at Camp Zachary Taylor. The order tells the officers that saluting must be more generally observed than heretofore. The importance of saluting as a military courtesy is pointed out, and the orders directs officers of whatever rank to follow the spirit and form of the regulations.

Desertion is Serious Offense.

The seriousness of desertion in time of war has been called to the attention of every man and officer at Camp Zachary Taylor. A general order recites a case at Camp Shelby, Miss., Jan. 31, in which Private Charles C. Conglethon, Battery A, 76th Field Artillery was tried and convicted of violation of the 58th Article of War. He was charged with deserting after his regiment had received orders for overseas service. He was found guilty and sentenced to be shot, but President Wilson commuted the sentence to twenty years imprisonment at Fort Leavenworth, and dishonorable discharge from the army.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD AT MEREDOSIA.

The merchants of Meredosia held a meeting at the Town Hall at Meredosia Monday evening for the purpose of considering the important matter of shortage of help for the harvest time caused by the large number of farm boys being called to the colors with the contingent this month. A very enthusiastic conference was held and all the merchants very willingly said they would give their hearty support to assist and lend the assistance of their clerks to the farmers during this time. Plans were made to close all business houses on certain days and assist in saving the bumper crop of wheat that this vicinity has been blessed with. The farmers and merchants have lended a hand in every patriotic movement and have shown an able spirit in the latter movement in saving the crop which will mean so much in winning the war.

Faultless in fit, fast colors, fine qualities, madras or silk, Negligee Shirts are sold by FRANK BYRNS' S. W. Cor. Square.

ATTENDED CONFERENCE

D. T. Heimlich, agent in poultry husbandry, one of the four state workers in poultry extension work for Illinois returned home Sunday from a conference held June 7th and 8th at the Great Northern Hotel in Chicago, where representatives of the U. S. government attended from the various food departments to confer and plan for a more perfect organization for co-operation in the work in these central states where the greater portion of poultry and eggs are produced. Illinois by the reports made, ranking first, will endeavor to enlist every county in the state to co-operate with the assistants of farm advisers, city and county school superintendents, school boards, city, town and village officials, and every loyal citizen to give aid in this endeavor to food production for home consumption and the saving of red meat for our allies and our soldier boys who are to win this war for liberty and world wide democracy.
